Stepup Mentorship Programme for UPSC 2026

StepUp Mentorship 2026 is a four-layered UPSC GS mentorship program scientifically designed for 2026 aspirants. You will be supported by a dedicated expert personal mentor who will help craft a tailored strategy aligned with your learning style and preparation needs. Additionally, an IAS/IPS topper will serve as a super mentor, providing strategic guidance, periodic reviews, and insights from their own UPSC journey.

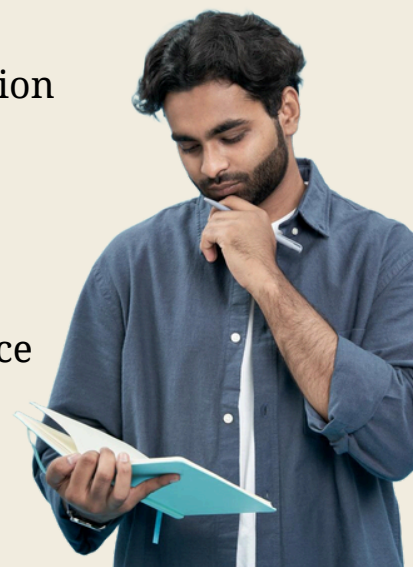

This comprehensive program goes beyond syllabus completion—it focuses on building core UPSC skills like answer writing, note-making, time management, and analytical and critical thinking, ensuring a well-rounded preparation for Prelims, Mains, and Interview.

99.99% Aspirants = $\frac{\text{Hardwork}}{\text{Failed to understand gaps}}$ = Failure

0.01% Aspirants = $\frac{\text{Hardwork} + \text{Smart Work} + \text{Right Guidance}}{\text{}} = \text{Toppers}$

Challenges Faced by Students

1. Unstructured Preparation and Scheduling
2. Sustaining Year-Long Consistency and Accountability
3. Limited Access to Experienced Mentorship
4. Difficulty in Integrating Prelims and Mains Preparation
5. Balancing Static and Current Affairs
6. Lack of High-Quality Value Addition Materials
7. Absence of Refined and Concise Revision Notes
8. Neglecting the Importance of Answer Writing Practice
9. Lack of Constructive and Structured Feedback
10. Managing Motivation, Anxiety, and Exam Stress
